The Director of Medical Services,
MADRAS - 6.

Sir,

Sub:- MEDICAL INSTITUTIONS - Rural Dispensary, Panathady - Terminating the services of Dr.U.Kalayudha Menon, M.B.B.S - Appointing a Medical Pracititioner of Indigenous Medicine - Conversion of the Allopathic dispensary into Indigenous Origin - sanction requested.

1 Dr.U.Kalayudha Menon, M.B.B.S., Medical Practitioner, Rural Dispensary, Panathady was chargesheeted in this office Proceedings Rc.No.20578-A4-51 dated 15-4-51 for unsatisfactory work and the services of the Medical Practitioner have been terminated by the District Board in its resolution No.40 dated 28-1-52 with the approval of the District Medical Officer, South Kanara agreeably to clause 14 of the agreement.

2 2. To fill up the above vacancy of Rural Medical Practitioner at Panathady applications were invited from qualified candidates of Modern Medicine but not a single candidate of Modern Medicine has applied so far.

3 3. So I request that the Government may be pleased to accord sanction for the conversion of the Rural Dispensary Panathddy into one of Indigenous Origin at an early date so that medical practitioners of Indigenous Medicine may be appointed in the above dispensary.

4 The copy of the District Board Resolution No.69 dated 22-7-52 in the matter is enclosed.

For President.

Referred to the Director of Medical Services for remarks through the Honorary Director of Indigenous Medicine.

(By order)

S.A. Srivilliputtur 5/8
Deputy Secretary to Govt.

To
The Director of Medical Services Madras 6. (Note and with reply).

Extract from the proceedings of the meeting of the members of the SOUTH KANARA DISTRICT BOARD dated 22-7-1952.

69. Read Office note dated 6-6-52 stating that no applications have been received from allopathic medical Practitioners for being appointed as Rural Medical Practitioner at Rural Allopathic subsidized dispensary, Panaththady; even though the post was advertised on 6-5-52 and also stating that it is not strictly necessary to get the sanction of the Government once again as it was once converted into a dispensary of Indigenous Medicine as per resolution No.853 dated 20-8-47.

Also President's orders dated 16-6-52 stating that the proposal of appointing a medical practitioner of Indigenous Medicine may be considered after converting the dispensary into an indigenous one with the sanction of the Board.

RESOLUTION "The dispensary may be converted into an indigenous dispensary"

I am of the view a dispensary of modern medicine should be continued to function as a dispensary of modern medicine only. I am confirmed in this view when I find many of the so called L.M.I.M. resort more to treatment with allopathic drugs than Indigenous. If a suitable Medical Officer is not forthcoming, effort should be made to employ retired officers, who, if their pension is not affected, may only be too willing to take up this work.
